

P.E.
Athletics
Dance

Maths
Shape, Statistics,
Length and Perimeter

Computing
How can we use technology to document the struggle between nature and mankind for the future?
Planning and filming of the documentary—
Capturing the Boscastle Flood

Science
How has the human impact on environments forced nature to adapt?
A scientific enquiry into how changing habitats affect living things.

Guided Reading
What lessons can we learn from how tales of floods have been reported?

The Flood — Jackie French
The Flood—Alvaro F Villa
Original news reports from The
Boscastle Floods 2004
(written and film)

Geography
Do Geographers need to be cruel to be kind?
Studying the human impact on water landscapes—case studies of Kielder Water in North Northumberland and Boscastle Flood.
A comparison between humans' and nature's use of water to shape the future.

Class 3 Summer Term 1
Value : Kindness
Enquiry Question: How can kindness shape our future?

R.E.
How can we share tolerance and kindness with those we do and do not share beliefs with?
A study of tolerance.

Art
Can textile art be used to understand different viewpoints of change?
Textile weaving of fabrics and words using different sized looms to portray water.
Batik to create figures of hopes and fears for the future of the land.

English
How can we capture the emotional cost of change?
Writing our own dramatic, disaster stories— what impact does the flood have on our character?
Poetry writing as a child from Kielder Valley and an engineer responsible for the creation of The Dam — how can we describe the relationship between water, people and the land?
Capturing the Boscastle Flood—a documentary using images, interviews and text to explore events and the future it is shaping.

Music
Does music enable us to understand our feelings as we shape our futures?
Creating a soundscape inspired by the Dam to accompany our poetry.

PSHE
How can we share kindness with ourselves, each other and the world?